

Professional Speaking Events

Professional Speaker: To qualify as a professional multifamily speaker, applicants must have received compensation for 12 presentations within a complete calendar year. A presentation is defined as a professional multifamily educational program with 10 or more attendees, presented live, on-line webinar, teleconference or consultation training in which you are the lead instructor. Please be sure that verifying documentation include any of the following: contracts, speaker agreements, client reference letters or documents generated as a result of your speaking engagement, type of presentation (live, on-line webinar, teleconference or consultation training in which you are the lead instructor) and number of attendees.

- No documentation will be accepted that includes any information relating to cost, fees and details of financial agreements or compensation. This information must be omitted prior to submission.
